Financial data unaudited in French standards

Drone VOLT reached a new high in its commercial development in Q3 2015, with record sales of euros 967 000 as compared to euros 501 000 in 2014. Over the first 9 months of the year, DRONE VOLT has accumulated euros 2 434 000 in sales, which is more than twice when compared to the first 9 months of last year (euros 1 158 000 = +110%).

This sales number do not include the contribution from DRONE VOLT SCANDINAVIA, which started its activity this summer.

This solid commercial growth is the result of the successful positioning of DRONE VOLT, which has helped the company outperform the growth of the civilian french drone market (+ 70% per year, according to XERFI).

This strong performance allows the company to continue in its strategic choices : growth of its R&D and expansion of its commercial teams. An ambitious recruitment plan, mainly focused on acquiring young talents from engineering and business schools, have been formulated for 2015 and 2016.

DRONE VOLT plans on maintaining a strong dynamics for the next quarters, thanks to its versatile product offering of drones answering the commercial needs of key sectors like agriculture and defense (« by DRONE VOLT »).

The company will be present on numerous professional conferences during the next couple of months (BATIMAT, SATIS, UGS, etc.) continuing its commercial offensive amongst professional.
