HERCULES 10 for the transport of medicines

---

Villepinte, October 10, 2019

DRONE VOLT, an embedded artificial intelligence expert and manufacturer of professional civil drones, has announced a promising new use for its HERCULES 10 drone.

DRONE VOLT has announced that one of its customers in Belgium has used the HERCULES 10 for the transport of medicines.

The HERCULES line of drones is being increasingly used for transport missions. These drones effectively allow the rapid transport of goods without risk to personnel, without CO<sub>2</sub> emissions and for a very low cost.

“Major international groups have commissioned DRONE VOLT to conduct feasibility studies concerning the transport of goods,” indicated Olivier Gualdoni, chairman / CEO of DRONE VOLT. “These group have obvious needs, notably in connection with deliveries of sensitive goods in hostile environments.”
